

REVIEW OF WORLD STOCK MARKETS

Consolidated European index DJStoxx600 increased by 0.5%, the major U.S. indexes - by 0.2-0.7%.

Growth of exchanges in the Asia-Pacific region on Monday averaged more than 1.5%, U.S. index futures were little plus - markets grew as the speculations about the upcoming ECB measures to repurchase stock of troubled eurozone countries, and the good statistics on the U.S. labour market. In addition, buyers had support with the information that the European Commission, the ECB and the IMF approved a preliminary provision of a new tranche to Greece in the amount of € 31,5 billion, while the ECB has decided to expand the Greek Central Bank lending by € 4 billion.
