The Ministry of Energy expects approval of a new energy strategy in June

The new energy strategy of the Russian Federation until 2050 can be approved in June, Russian Energy Minister Nikolai Shulginov expects.

“Our proposal is to slightly shift the timing of adoption and approval, based on the events that lie ahead of us (elections, government formation), in order to approve it somewhere at the beginning of the six months, somewhere in June. We are working on this,” he said.
