

ELECTRIC POWER INDUSTRY NEWS

Kilowatts are getting more expensive in some places

After indexation from 1 July, the growth of the sales markup in the price of electricity for industrial consumers will exceed 20% for more than 40 suppliers of last resort. Analysts explain the growth of the indicator by the high key rate, which increases the costs of companies to service loans, as well as the departure of some industries to independent energy sales companies, which increases the burden on other customers.
