Regions will be reconnected to tariffs. Several constituent entities of the Russian Federation will have to adjust their energy plans for 2024

According to Kommersant, the FAS may force a number of regions to change electricity tariffs for 2024. The service received comments from the constituent entities of the Russian Federation that sharply increased energy tariffs for businesses, but did not introduce preferential consumption limits for the population, as recommended by the government. The regulator was most outraged by the decision of the authorities of the Irkutsk region: the region complains about mining in the household sector, but instead of changing tariffs for the population, it again increased them for businesses by 19%.
