Belgorod power engineers to install 16 thousand smart meters in the region this year

Residents will no longer need to independently transfer readings to the sales company. This year, Belgorodenergo's specialists will install 16 thousand smart meters in the Belgorod region. This is twice as many meters as in the previous one, as reported in the InformBuro telegram channel. Thus, the total number of such devices in the electricity metering structure will reach 27.4 percent.
