China plans to build a powerful wind power plant in Russia

The Chinese company CEIC plans to build a wind power plant with a capacity of more than 1,000 MW in the Amur region. The new facility will export energy to China, said the Minister of the Russian Federation for the Development of the Far East, Alexey Chekunkov, in his Telegram channel. At negotiations held in Beijing as part of the third international forum "One Belt, One Road", the head of the Ministry of Eastern Development outlined the basic principles for the implementation of the wind power plant project. The Chinese company CEIC and the Russian En+ will implement the plans.
