The Ministry of Construction is preparing changes to the system of payment for housing and communal services

On behalf of Deputy Prime Minister Marat Khusnullin, the Ministry of Construction is developing a system of special accounts for accumulating utility bills on them. From special accounts, the managing company will be able to transfer funds only to those organizations that supply heat, electricity and water to homes. The initiative will increase financial transparency in the housing and utilities sector, experts are sure, but it will not solve the problem of non-paying citizens.
