The first electric taxi in Russia to be launched in Nizhny Novgorod

The presentation of a comprehensive project for development of urban electric transport and the creation of a charging infrastructure will be held on 31 January in Nizhny Novgorod. This was reported by the press service of "Rusnano". "The Nizhny Novgorod region is the first region in Russia where a comprehensive project for the development of electric transport from charging to user has been implemented. At the preparatory stage, 44 charging stations have been installed in the city, which owners of private electric vehicles will also be able to use, as well as a rolling stock of more than 180 electric vehicles has been prepared. The electric car can be ordered through one of the largest taxi aggregators," the message says.
