Rosseti Centre provided electricity to a new building of a children's hospital in Kostroma

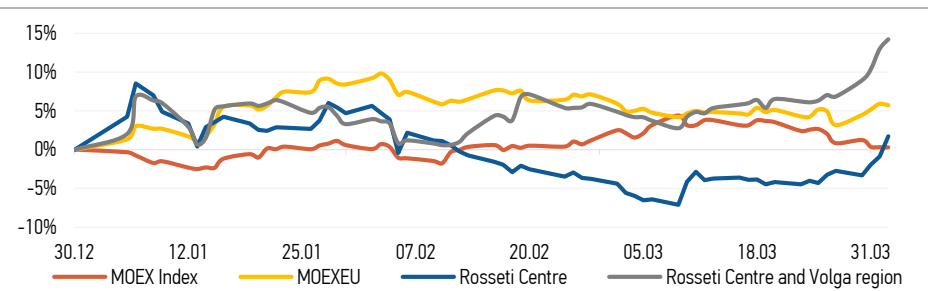

Kostromaenergo's specialists connected the new treatment and diagnostic centre of the regional children's hospital to the grid. This is the largest project in children's healthcare in the region in recent decades. The centre has been provided with a capacity of almost 1 MW to operate its high-tech equipment. The facility is connected to a second-category reliability rating - in the event of an emergency, power will automatically switch to a backup source.
