Head of the FAS redistributed the supervision of the agro-industrial complex and the electric power industry between deputies

Head of the Federal Antimonopoly Service Maxim Shaskolsky redistributed powers between his deputies, follows from the information on the website of the department. The changes affected the departments of regulation of the electric power industry and control in the agro-industrial complex (AIC). Supervision of the electric power industry was transferred to FAS Deputy Head Gennady Magazinov from Vitaly Korolev, who has been in charge of antimonopoly regulation in this area since 2008, first as head of the department, then as deputy head of the service.
