ELECTRIC POWER INDUSTRY NEWS

Businesses will be charged for power lines. The government has identified a source of funding for new transmission power lines

Investments in construction of power lines through 2032 are estimated at over RUB 1 trillion. Previously, new grid construction was financed primarily through electricity transmission tariffs. It has now been decided that Rosseti will receive a separate surcharge on the wholesale energy market, which will be collected from industrial consumers, as well as a number of additional increasing coefficients to its tariffs.
