The Duma adopted the law on BTGO

The State Duma immediately adopted in the second and third readings a law on the creation of backbone territorial grid organizations (BTGOs) and the introduction of automatic remote control of electric power facilities. The document was initiated by the government of the Russian Federation. The law provides for the creation in each subject of the Russian Federation of systemically important TGOs - a single centre of responsibility, which will perform the function of a "one-stop shop" for consumers of electricity transmission services and energy sales organizations, operate ownerless power grid facilities and eliminate large-scale failures in grids of other territorial grid organizations by decision of the regional reliability headquarters.
