Ministry of Energy legislatively initiates the suppression of the creation of TGOs on the basis of those that have lost their status

The Ministry of Energy of the Russian Federation, as part of the consolidation of territorial grid organizations (TGOs), hopes to legally suppress all attempts to create new electric grid organizations on the basis of those that have previously lost such status, follows from the words of the head of the ministry, Nikolai Shulginov, during the final meeting of the board of the ministry. Thus, the Ministry of Energy expects to continue to resolve the issue of consolidating territorial grid organizations, 40% of which, according to the minister, do not meet the requirements for reliable operation.
