Cellular shares: new benefits for electricity proposed to introduce in Russia

It was asked to introduce a preferential tariff for electricity for mobile operators. Such a measure is being worked out in the Council for the Development of the Digital Economy under the Federation Council. It will help curb the rise in prices for cellular communications, experts say. Operators support the measure, but it may lead to an increase in the load on other consumers and growth in cross-subsidization by more than RUB 1 billion a year. Therefore, the Ministry of Energy and the Federal Antimonopoly Service oppose such an initiative.
