Tariffs for housing and communal services in Russia should increase gently

Tariffs for housing and communal services should increase in the Russian Federation gently and in a timely manner, and citizens' incomes should grow at a faster pace. Russian President Vladimir Putin announced this on a direct line and at a press conference. "Of course, everything needs to be done in a timely manner. And tariffs should rise in a timely manner, gently. And citizens' incomes should grow at a faster pace," the president said.
