Consumers called on the Cabinet of Ministers to return the bill on systemically important TGOs for revision

The Association "Community of Energy Consumers" (CEC, unites large industrial consumers of electricity) asked the Russian government to return the bill on the creation of backbone territorial grid organizations (BTGO) in the regions to the Ministry of Energy of the Russian Federation for revision. The head of the CEC, Valery Dzyubenko, wrote about this in a letter addressed to Deputy Prime Minister Alexander Novak, who oversees the fuel and energy sector in the Cabinet of Ministers.

Belgorodenergo's specialists are preparing to work in adverse weather conditions

According to the Hydrometeorological Centre, on 18 January, the weather is expected to worsen in the Belgorod region: precipitation in the form of sleet and rain, wind with gusts of up to 15–20 m/s, temperatures from 21–26 degrees below zero at night to 1–4 degrees above zero during the day. Adverse weather events can cause damage to power equipment. Power engineers of the branch of Rosseti Centre - Belgorodenergo exercise enhanced control over the power supply to consumers in the region.

Kirovenergo's power engineers eliminated all technological violations in the main 6-10 kV grid after a snowfall

Power supply to consumers in the Kirov region, interrupted due to a heavy snowfall, was restored by 5 pm Moscow time on 17 January 2024. All damage to the 6–10 kV grid, caused by wet snow, blizzards and squally winds with gusts of up to 23 m/s passing through the territory of the Kirov region, has been eliminated. Currently, work is underway on individual requests from consumers on the 0.4 kV network, and power engineers are processing them promptly.
